

Company Fact Sheet

Our unique product offerings, professional experience, and custom services make us a leader in the industry. Although we primarily, service customers in the Carolinas, we have recently expanded our operations nationally under our new KS Audio Video brand.

Who We Are

KS Audio Video is a full service home technology retailer and installation company servicing both commercial and residential customers. We are conveniently located in Cornelius, NC just 20 miles north of Charlotte. We have been in business since 1986 and we have been proudly serving the greater Charlotte area since 1994. Our installation team has over thirty years of combined experience in commercial and residential applications. We specialize in providing quality custom installation to our many valued customers.

What We Do

- DIRECTV, DISH Network, and C/Ku Band satellite video systems,
- The authorized commercial DIRECTV dealer the greater Charlotte area,
- Fully integrated high-definition satellite home theater installation including touch-panel operation, surround sound, and picture optimization,
- Authorized Bose Retailer
- Authorized Life | ware Retailer
- High-definition television installation for sports bars, restaurants, and homes including LCDs, plasmas, DLPs, and front or rear projection television,
- Mobile video and internet satellite for RVs, motor coaches, and haulers,
- CCTV applications including high-speed tilt/pan/zoom IP-addressable internet-ready cameras and PVR/DVR and VCR recording,
- SMATV, modulated and head-end applications for businesses, apartments buildings, condominiums/town homes, and hotels/motels,
- Modulated audio and video matrix solutions for businesses, sports bars, fitness centers, and restaurants,
- Commercial-free music service including XM Satellite Radio and Sirius Satellite Radio,
- VSAT installation and service.

What We Believe

KS Audio Video believes that the design and integration of customized leading-edge audio/video solutions with your current business model is the key to boosting profits, increasing customer satisfaction, and keeping your employees 'in the know'. We are dedicated to providing high-quality commercial solutions that are 'employee-friendly' and minimize down-time, enabling you to grow and focus on your business. We offer a wide-range of commercial-quality product lines, installation and service options. For us, quality is the key ensuring that your customers and employees will enjoy premium service with minimal interruption. KS Audio Video offers exclusive 24-hour-turn-around service and technical phone support. We are committed to working with our customers one-on-one to provide solutions tailored to your business' specific needs.